No stand may be vacated in whole or in part before the end of the exhibition. In the event of non-compliance, the deposit of 200 euros will be forfeited.

3. Stands
The stands are delivered ready for occupancy by the organiser. The partition walls are approx. 2.25 m high and may be nailed up. Use sturdy stand shelves and not shelves that rest on angle brackets that have to be screwed to the partition walls. Metal brackets for gun racks or hanging racks etc. can be hung and screwed over the top edge of the walls. All nails and screws must be removed at the end of the event. The stands are closed off at the front by an approx. 20 cm wide top panel that ends at the top edge of the frame. This may be nailed.

4. Exemption licence
Every supplier of weapons requiring a licence, unlicensed weapons and cutting and thrusting weapons must submit an application for a special permit in good time before the start of the trade fair (see attached application). Firearms subject to authorisation may be offered.

5. Compliance with §86a StGB
The exhibitor undertakes to strictly comply with Section 86a of the German Criminal Code (StGB) as amended on 31 May 1978, which prohibits, among other things, the exhibiting, exchanging and trading of objects bearing or bearing the marks of former National Socialist organisations (masking). The stricter provisions of the Weapons and War Weapons Control Act must be strictly adhered to. Trade in counterfeits or imitations is prohibited. The exhibitor also undertakes to strictly comply with §40 WaffG.

In the event of violations of the provisions of §86a StGB and the provisions of the Weapons and War Weapons Control Act, the exhibition management has the right to close and dismantle the exhibitor's stand immediately. Any claims for damages are excluded.

A prohibition list according to §86a StGB can be requested from Expo Management GmbH!
